

STATE WILL HELP PROSECUTE WOMAN IN HAMAN CASE

Oklahoma Governor Says There Has Been "Horse Play" in Case of Politician's Murder.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Dec. 24.—The state of Oklahoma will aid in the prosecution of Clara Barton Smith, wanted in connection with the fatal shooting of Jake L. Haman, when the case comes to trial. Governor J. B. A. Robertson announced here at noon yesterday. He will instruct the Attorney General's Department to assist in the prosecution, he said.

The Governor said that public opinion in Ardmore may be so strongly prejudiced in favor of Clara Smith that any attorney appointed by the court to prosecute her might be unsatisfactory to the state. James P. Mathers, County Attorney-elect, who will succeed Russell B. Brown on January 1, is now attorney for Clara Smith and will be disqualified from taking the case, the Governor said.

In discussing the case, Governor Robertson said he was convinced "that there was a great deal of 'horse play' in the preparation of the prosecution. He said that in his opinion the woman should be convicted of manslaughter and serve a term in the state penitentiary.

TO WED. SATURDAY.

A pretty Christmas marriage will take place Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Lucy Vorhees Rayborn Wilson, of this city, and Mr. N. A. White, of Detroit, Mich., are wedded at the parsonage by Rev. John A. Davis, pastor of the First Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Yeale are the attendants.

Mrs. Wilson is the well-known and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Rayborn, of Forest avenue. She is a very attractive and talented young lady.

Mr. White is manager for the F. S. Carr Co., one of the largest dealers in automobile accessories in Detroit; a veteran of the World War, having served with the 339th Infantry in Russia; and a promising young business man of sterling character.

After the marriage the happy young couple will leave on a short wedding trip after which they will be located in the groom's home city where he has already prepared a home for his bride.

Major and Mrs. John Walsh and daughter, Miss Lena Walsh, leave this afternoon for Newport to spend the Christmas season with relatives.

HOTEL PORTER CHARGED WITH STEALING REVOLVER

Valuable Pistol Is Missing From Grip and Police Charge Porter Who Carried Grip With Theft.

James Hawkins, colored, porter of the Central Hotel is under arrest charged with larceny. His examining trial has been set for Monday afternoon in City Court.

Mr. E. B. Perrine, who arrived here yesterday from his home at Minneapolis to visit relatives during the Christmas holidays carried a very valuable Colt's automatic target pistol in his traveling bag. When he alighted from the train here he sent his grip up town in the Central Hotel automobile and later telephoned to have the grip delivered to the home of Mr. B. O. Pickett in West Second street.

Hawkins was detailed by the hotel clerk to deliver the grip and upon its arrival at the Pickett home the revolver was missing. The matter was referred to the police and they arrested Hawkins. Their theory is that he opened the grip while enroute from the hotel to the Pickett home and took the revolver. Hawkins protests his innocence.

That new band, only four practices, will play Sunday. They are wonders.

The Children's Kingdom

FOR LITTLE CHILDREN EVERYWHERE A JOYOUS SEASON STILL WE MAKE: WE BRING OUR PRECIOUS GIFTS TO THEM • EVEN FOR THE DEAR CHILD JESUS' SAKE.

The baby of the manger, overlooked by the mild-eyed oxen and worshipped by the wise men with their frankincense and myrrh, came to establish a new kingdom—the Kingdom of God.

One other kingdom He established on this earth to make glad the hearts of all at this blessed season—The Children's Kingdom of Christmas.

At midnight the portals which shut this magic kingdom off from the workaday world swing silently open. At dawn the little people of the realm begin to troop into it. Little pattering feet, funny little forms clad in nightclothes swarm through the open gates of the Kingdom of Christmas and take possession for the day.

The horns blow, the rattles sound, the drums beat, rations of sugar plums and confits are served out to the pajama-clad army. Chariots, carts, donkeys and automobiles speed across the carpeted plains, and the reign of the children revels itself out to a sleepy end at nightfall, with dolls and swords clasped in hands which have fallen slant in sleep.

It is a great day, a day of sweet foolishness, a time for the barring of hearts too long screened from the eyes that long to look into them and see love enthroned.

Make the most of it, the best of it and all you can of it. It comes but once a year. Most people find themselves unable to buy the presents they would like to buy for Christmas. Some find the season a time of unhappiness for that very reason. Try not to feel thus. It is not the presents bought or received that makes the day of good. It is the love spent and not the money that counts.

The DAY should break down every barrier between hearts estranged and be the starting point for better relations and new affections—and above all, it should be the day of the Children's Kingdom.

And whenever Christmas is made the children's festival—based on LOVE—His gentle spirit will be in the midst of it.

BUSINESS MEN PLAY SANTA TO POOR KIDS GLADDENING HEARTS

Many Poor Kiddies Receive Candles and Toys at Court House—Boys' Band Members Get Hand-Some Checks.

The Santa Claus party given at the court house this afternoon by the business men of Maysville to the poor kiddies of this community was probably the greatest success to any such party held in recent years.

The children were on hand early and they were not disappointed in the least for old Santa Claus was soon on the scene with plenty of candy, nuts and toys of all kinds for girls and boys and no child was turned away but hundreds of little hearts were gladdened. The business men who had a part in financing the party received their full money's worth by seeing the little faces brighten as they were handed their packages.

Every detail of the party had been carefully worked out and there was nothing to mar the success of the event. The streets were filled with kiddies well loaded down during the afternoon. The concert of the Boys' Band was greatly enjoyed.

Band Members Get Annual Checks. The members of the band seemed to play with more enthusiasm than usual because they knew that they were to receive their annual checks at this meeting. The members of the band have worked faithfully during the year and they have gathered quite a neat little sum into their treasury.

The twenty-seven members of the band who have played all year received checks for $45.00 each while four other members who have been in the first band for but a short time received checks for $12.50 each.

Appreciating the kindness of Mr. M. B. Wunder, who has always taken pleasure in helping the band out on concerts, the management presented him with a beautiful b-flat clarinet as a Christmas gift and the members of the band presented Mr. Barnard, their leader, with a fine Christmas turkey.

Besides their checks which was the money they had made themselves, every member of the band received a pocket knife and a small pair of candy as a Christmas gift from the business men of Maysville.

It was announced this afternoon that at the present time the band's uniform fund amounts to $1019.16 and the management hopes to have enough money in this fund to purchase all members of the band a very attractive uniform in the spring.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT PRESENTED TONIGHT

Christmas Services at the Methodist Church Will Include Offering For Starving Children.

At Third Street M. E. Church this evening beginning at 7 o'clock will be presented "The World's Christmas Pageant," a pageant by Madeline Sweeney Miller. This pageant presents in the most impressive manner the needs of the starving children of Europe. Those in charge have so arranged the church that it will present to the congregation in the most realistic fashion the message intended. The pageant will be the first number on the program. This will be followed by the offering for this cause.

Then will follow other Christmas exercises of a very entertaining character leading up to the coming of Santa Claus who will come down a sure enough chimney. A large, beautifully decorated, and well lighted Christmas tree occupied the center of the platform. The whole scene presented will be well worth the seeing and hearing by all who can come. And everyone is welcome. Come and enjoy the whole entertainment.

We have just fourteen of the famous Rainaud Table Lamps that are priced 25% under the market. They won't last long. Electric Shop, Maysville Gas Co. 15Dec17

GREEN RIVER GROWERS DISBAND ORGANIZATION

Not Sufficient Leaf Pooled To Assure Success of Venture—Prices Some Better.

Owensboro, Ky., Dec. 24.—The organization of tobacco growers of the Green River tobacco district here, formed recently to work for higher tobacco prices, has disbanded, following a report of its executive committee of failure to sufficiently arouse the interest of farmers in a contemplated tobacco pooling arrangement.

Reports of the committee showed that tobacco pledged to the pool was 3,000,000 pounds short of the amount required to handle sales. After submission of the reports, the executive committee resigned.

Meantime prices on the market here have reached an average of $11 per hundred pounds compared with $4 the opening day a month ago. In this period only 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco has been sold, bringing an average of $7.91 per hundred pounds. About 6,000,000 pounds had been sold at this date last year for a $19 average.

Five Rosebuds will play with the Boys' Band Sunday.

SCHOOLS HOUSES IN THE EAST END TO BE ELECTRIFIED

Important Meeting of the Maysville Board of Education Held Last Night.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Board of Education held at the High School building Thursday evening was a very important meeting and many matters were discussed by the members.

Probably the most important business transacted was the matter of authorizing the Property Committee to have both the Forest Avenue and the Sixth ward buildings wired for electricity. This committee will receive bids for this work and hopes to have it underway in a short time.

The School Board also agreed to install and maintain a moving picture outfit in the High School building when the students of that school had paid for the equipment.

The matter of furnishing the children pure water has been much on the minds of the Board members and last night they had a water still which is very highly recommended explained to them. It is more than likely that such a still will be installed in the High School building which will enable the students to have distilled water which is absolutely pure at all times. No final action was taken on this matter, however, and it was left in the hands of the Sanitary committee with power to act.

COVINGTON DROPS COMMISSION FORM.

The returns of the last election, abolishing the commission form of government for Covington, were held valid yesterday by Judge Frank M. Tracy in an opinion handed down in the Keaton Circuit Court in the case of G. A. Sells against John B. Dillon, Sr., County Clerk, and John B. Read, Keaton County Judge.

The order of the court signifies that the city government will be changed back to the old Councilmanic form in January, 1922.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

CONTENTED?

Think of it; a really contented man has been found; a man who is perfectly satisfied with his lot in life and the condition in which he lives!

And where do you suppose he is? Not in a marble palace or in a New York City house.

He is in the penitentiary. He is in the prison at Raiford, Fla., where the state keeps its convicts on a farm and works them outdoors. This contented prisoner is a convict. He is a negro who is not worried by lack of social equality with the white convicts and who is well fed, has a good bed and light work. He wants nothing more.

This negro has been in the prison forty years, according to reliable authority, though he was originally sent up to serve a term of just eighteen months. But he liked the prison so well that when the time came for his discharge he refused to leave the place and has been there ever since.

Does this strange instance of a contented convict mean that the prison is so well conducted or that the convict himself is utterly lacking in ambition? Draw your own conclusions. There is probably a good deal of both in the conditions. The negro is lacking in ambition; most negroes are that, but he is also well provided for.

The Florida prison is well conducted, on the honor system and the food provided is good. The beds are good and it does not appear to be a prison because there are not high stone walls and no cell blocks with heavy iron bars and the prisoners are allowed considerable freedom.

How many wardens in the United States can boast that their prisoners like the place so well that even one of them stays voluntarily?

MAYSVILLE MOURNS WITH HER NEIGHBORS.

To those of our neighboring town of Augusta who last their loved ones in the sinking of the steamer "Margaret," the sympathies of the people of Maysville go out.

The disaster was one of the most horrible in the history of river traffic in this district of the Ohio River and is double horrible, happening as it does, in the Christmas season, when all should be joyous and happy.

The government officials who are investigating the disaster should go into the matter most thoroughly and knowing two of those officials, the Public Ledger can assure the bereaved that nothing will go undone to learn the real cause of the sinking and where the blame should rightfully rest.

Maysville mourns with Augusta and Mason county bows her head with her neighbor Bracken county in her great bereavement.

May those who mourn the loss of loved ones be comforted.

THE GOOD TAX PROGRAM.

Congressman James W. Good of Iowa, Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, was a recent speaker before the City Club of Washington. He took occasion to make a strong plea for drastic retrenchment in government expenditures, declaring that the estimates of the executive departments should be cut to less than $3,500,000,000. As one source of future revenue Mr. Good advocates a tax of 60 cents per horse power on each automobile, which he estimates would yield a total of $250,000,000 a year. As a further means of reducing the tax burden, Representative Good urges that the war debt of the Nation should be spread over a period of from 50 to 100 years. He believes that the present generation has paid its full share of the war cost in lives and money, and that future generations, who will reap the benefit of the victory, should contribute to its cost.

THE CAPPER BILL.

The bill sponsored by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas exempting farmers' cooperative associations from the provisions of the Sherman antitrust law, has been passed by the Senate with certain changes in the language as it was received from the House. One of the amendments provides that the Federal Trade Commission instead of the Secretary of Agriculture shall pass on complaints against any association. Another stipulates that any attempt on the part of an association to create a monopoly or to resort to methods of commercial competition shall subject it to prosecution under the antitrust laws and the so-called Clayton act. Conference on the part of the Senate and House will now endeavor to reach a compromise on the Senate amendments, after which the measure will be presented to the President for his approval.

MOTHER GAVE IT

Virginia Lady Suffered With Aches and Pains Until Mother Began Giving Her Cardui.

Dublin, Va.—Miss Mary Alice Huggett residing on Route 2, near here, recently told a visitor of her interesting experience with Cardui.

Miss Huggett said: "I had been suffering for some time with painful ... I was pale, didn't feel like going. Would just drag around, and couldn't rest to do any good. I would suffer once a month with my back, sides and head. My limbs would ache and I didn't know what to do, but I knew I must do something, for I didn't get well by letting it run on."

"My mother is a believer in Cardui, for she saw what it did for others as well as herself, so she began giving it to me."

"It wasn't long before I saw a change. It was just what I needed. It regulated me. I began to eat and sleep, and the pain stopped."

"Cardui is without doubt the best female tonic made, and I am glad I can recommend it to others."

If suffering with symptoms such as Miss Huggett mentions, or other ailments peculiar to women, why not begin Cardui at once? Its merit is well established by successful use for more than 40 years.

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — Living in a luxurious hotel suite is not luxury if it carried stocking-darning and handkerchief laundering with it, according to Mrs. Jobst Hinne, Jr., wife of a wealthy New York importer and exporter who has had her husband arrested in a separation suit. She declares that when her father-in-law came over from Europe, he insisted that she had too many American ideas about women and that she might well become accustomed to older standards. This included darning his socks, washing his handkerchiefs and eating at a separate table from her husband and himself, although they were all living at the Commodore. This struck her as an unattractive life, especially as her husband agreed with it all.

This awful generation! What intrigues will it next draw unto itself? No wonder that people write to the Atlantic Monthly about it. Four and five years ago, the jeune filles of Gotham's Smart Set were wont to skip away after properly chaperoned parties to dance in a giddy restaurant on the way home. That was bad enough. But now! The other night some very nice people gave the very smartest theater party of the season for a debutante. And after the collation provided at the hosts' home, a number of the guests went to a downtown restaurant—no, not a giddy one—but one where the outstanding characteristics are white tiles and an absence of table linen, for a meal of griddle cakes. Griddle cakes!

Tex Rickard said it could be done and that he could do it—make Madison Square Garden a place where the nicest woman in town would go to see a boxing match. And he did it. Among the most prominent of the exceedingly nice women who saw Bill Brennan take the count and Jack Dempsey retain the title of heavyweight champion at the Garden the other night were Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, her sister-in-law Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, properly chaperoned by her husband, and all the occupants of three ring-side boxes taken by Miss Anne Morgan. Tex was the happiest man in the city.

It isn't always so bad—this being on a jury. A whole jury full of men who used to dread that part of citizenship were guests of honor the other night at "The Gold Diggers." Ruth Terry, of the company, won a lawsuit recently against a theatrical agent who said she owed him money for getting her an engagement. She won the case and the deciding jury members were being pretty thanked.

Contracts are the edict of fashion. And it must be contract in temperature, so to speak. If you wear woolen hose—and if you are a woman, you do this season—you must wear a silk hat with it. And if you wear very sheer silk hose—and again, you do—you must simultaneously be topped in a fur toque. There must be no swerving from the routine. The sun must appear to be shining on your head or your feet and the other end to be braving the wintry blasts.

Men said that women would upset politics. And here they go at it. Miss Elizabeth Marbury's committee reports a balance on hand from its campaign funds! Received, $8,952.42, says the report to the state; expended, $8,825.46. After such a showing as this it seems almost unkind to mention that Miss Marbury didn't think anything about filing a report at all—didn't know the law expected her to—until it was delicately brought to her attention.

"We are living in a wilderness and marriage at best is a risk. That's what I tell a young girl when she comes to me for advice. She may not know it, but usually she is better off as she is." So says Mrs. Catherine Tibball, of Brooklyn, who has watched the world go by for 101 years. Maybe that's just a mixing of perspective, though. There is no doubt but what marriage and married life today must seem a rather chaotic affair to anyone whose own days of courtship were 20 years and more before the civil war. It is small wonder that on her 101st birthday anniversary, this present world seems rather bewildering. Mrs. Tibball's grandmother, who died at the age of 110, owned the old slave cemetery at Hunt's Point. She freed her slaves and had them all brought back there to be buried.

LIGHTEN YOUR DAILY BURDENS

Plenty of Red Blood Keeps Your Health Good. Easier to Get Things Done

POOR BLOOD A HANDICAP
Pepto-Mangan Builds Up Energy That Fatigue Destroys.

When you overwork, worry and strain, your system has extra work to do. If you keep it up very long, your blood simply cannot take care of all the waste. It becomes clogged with poisons.

You keep on working just the same. But when your blood becomes weakened your vitality lowers. You find it a burden to get things done. Your speed lags. You begin to feel "all in." Then, is the time to take that splendid tonic, Pepto-Mangan. Your blood needs enriching. Physicians recommend Pepto-Mangan because it builds red corpuscles and makes your blood rich and red. It cleans out all the poisons. You begin to feel better and stronger right away. It is much easier to get work done. You have renewed vitality.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in liquid and tablet form. The medicinal value is exactly the same. Take either kind you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—the name "Gude's" should be on the package—Advertisement.

ON THE FARM IN KENTUCKY

There has been little work done on the farm during the past week except for the shucking of some corn. Little work has been done in the tobacco as the weather has been such as would not permit of taking the weed down from the barn. Practically all of the week that had been previously hauled down has been stripped out and is ready for delivery.

Up to the present time there is little tobacco in the local warehouses for the opening sale but farmers report that they are expecting quite a lot of tobacco to be delivered for the first sales which will be held the first week in January.

Farmers in these parts are not at all pleased with the outlook. They are not expecting prices to be high but they should be on the opening market and there is going to be much dissatisfaction unless they are agreeably surprised.

What the growers in this and adjoining counties will do if the opening market price is not satisfactory is not sufficient to pay them for their crop cannot at this time be told. There is no organization in this section and no one is authorized to speak for any number of growers. There are many who will likely refuse to market their crop if the price is not satisfactory but there are others who probably cannot afford to hold their crop and each man must decide for himself if these conditions arise.

Reports from the Southern markets that they are slightly on the advance at their close is indeed encouraging and there are some who believe that the condition in the Burley district will be altogether different from the condition prevailing in the Black Belt at its opening. There are thousands who are hoping as much.

Scores of Mason county farmers in Maysville Saturday helped the Maysville High School students by subscribing to the Country Gentleman and at the same time subscribed for a high class farm magazine that will be worth much to them throughout the twelve months to come.

Following the Christmas holidays and the opening of the looseleaf tobacco market will come the campaign for members in the Mason County Farm Bureau. This will be only a part of a state-wide campaign for Farm Bureau members and it is expected that hundreds of new subscribers will be added during the campaign. Its worth has been proven and the farmers who are not members are only losing a great chance to improve their conditions. The work of the Farm Bureau is given much attention by the Ohio farmers just at this time.

WOMEN HEARD AT FARM BUREAU CONVENTION

Woman already has her place in the ranks of American Farm Bureau Federation. These two, Mrs. John C. Ketcham of Hastings, Mich., and Mrs. C. W. Sewell of Otterbein, Ind., appeared before the Farm Bureau National Convention at Indianapolis last week, both having decided hits in the message they carried. Mrs. Ketcham is one of the two women in the U. S. who are members of the executive committee. She is a director of the Michigan State Farm Bureau. Mrs. Sewell dropped her house work on her farm to talk on Home-building.

attention by the Ohio farmers just at this time.

There has been a little flurry in politics in the county during the past week but it has not created a great amount of interest as the farmer has other things holding his attention just now that are much more important than politics. During the spring politics will be given attention.

Farmers using the Lexington road will be glad to hear that the Fiscal Court will surface that road between Maysville and Washington immediately with rock asphalt, a shipment of this Kentucky product having already been received. This road should be surfaced properly to the Fleming county line and then patrolled so that it could be properly kept up in the future.

Mason county farmers have signified a willingness to take over the Corn and Tobacco Fair for the future if the Maysville Chamber of Commerce does not care to manage the big event. In case the farmers do take the fair over it is a certainty that it will be a grand success.

During the past year, County Agent B. A. Henstey, in Johnson county, in cooperation with the farmers of his county has distributed 2,200 eggs and 150 baby chicks among the farmers as a part of the campaign to increase the pure bred poultry in that section of the state.

A THOROUGH TEST One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts.

Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action.

The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete.

Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

NO TROUBLE SINCE
Nearly thirteen years later, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

One hundred per cent. of the farmers in the Boks Creek Farmers' Club prune their trees in their orchards each year and obtain good results according to a report of their secretary. The men have learned the operation from the county agent and extension specialists who have worked in the county.

ABOLISH THE WAR RISK IS REPUBLICAN PLAN

Deserted By 80% of Enlisted Men It Has Gone Into Ordinary Insurance Field at Loss.

Washington, D. C. — To turn the Bureau of War Risk, now an adjunct of the Treasury Department, over to a new Department of Social Welfare or to abolish it altogether and have the Pension Office assume its activities, is the expressed purpose of Republican leaders.

The Bureau today has on its rolls in the National Capital 6,500 employees as compared to 15,000 a year ago and 17,000 seventeen months ago. During the fiscal year it is costing the government $125,000,000 for the payment of military and naval insurance, $10,324,000 for salaries and expenses, and $46,000,000 for the taking over of service hospitals.

Eighty per cent. of the soldiers and sailors who took out war risk policies did not keep up their payments and were therefore dropped. Ten per cent of these have been influenced by the bureau to resume payments. This has been brought about by large expenditures of money and energy to get the service men to convert their policies to life insurance handled by the government which would otherwise be handled by private companies.

Thus today the government holds in risks of this kind policies amounting to $511,821,500. Of this total $77,926,000 is in ordinary life policies, $165,276,000 in twenty-year endowment policies, $182,830,500 in twenty-payment life policies, $35,353,500 in thirty-year endowment policies, $27,516,000 in endowment policies paid up at the age of sixty-two, and $19,859,500 in thirty-year payment life insurance policies. At the same time the bureau is in the insurance business, as it has a right to be under the law, it is giving out that to date it has received gross applications numbering 4,655,789 and amounting in risk to $40,411,957,500.

As seventy per cent. of the enlisted men have given up their payments, these figures, which would otherwise impress one with the great dignity and usefulness of the Bureau of War Risk, prove nothing.

It is, therefore, held by Republican Congressmen that if such a large proportion of the enlisted men gave up the benefits they would have received had they kept up their payments, the bureau is a failure. Certainly, they declare, the government should not go into the insurance business at a loss any more than in the railroad, the telephone or the telegraph business at a loss. Yet they are of the opinion that the insurance given the soldiers during the war should be kept up for those who care for it. Consequently, they are of the opinion that the Bureau of War Risk should be abolished and all of its functions turned over to the Pension Office, which during the past year has reduced its personnel of clerks from 1,100 to 800. The 6,500 War Risk clerks would thus be eliminated.

In accord with Republican policy throughout two generations, it is likely that the disabled and their dependents will be assisted by means of pensions rather than pursue an insurance policy adopted by the present administration during the war and since found to be unpopular among the veterans of the war. The Pension Office is a time honored Republican institution. It is considered to have performed a great service in the last half-century in assisting the veterans of the Civil War, who have now almost entirely disappeared. The war risk, because of its reputation for bungling has had few friends in Congress. Hence, many of the congressional leaders are looking to a reestablishment of the former pension policy.

Two more farmers of Lee county purchased pure bred boars recently which brings the total number of pure bred in that county up to 16, according to a report of county agent, T. H. Jones. Four of these animals were secured from the best breeders in the state and all are splendid individuals.

ART ACORD and MILDRED MOORE in the last episode of

THE MOON RIDERS

Don't fail to see the finish of this sensational serial. See the King of Cowpunchers blow the Devilmen sky high.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "THE IMMIGRANT." One of Chaplin's best comedies. Also Lee Moran and Eddie Lyons in a good comedy.

ADMISSION 10 AND 15 CENTS.

THE PASTIME WISHES YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS

and presents for your entertainment on Christmas Day ELMO LINCOLN, the man who wants to fight Jack Dempsey, in "UNDER CRIMSON SKIES." Lincoln will be remembered as the blacksmith in "The Beast of Berlin," also Tarzan in "Tarzan of the Apes." This is a red-blooded drama of strong men's passions and a woman's pure love. A Latin-American revolutionary battle is shown in this picture. A terrible night storm on the Pacific is shown. See ELMO LINCOLN the modern Sampson, and star in "The Kaiser, The Beast of Berlin" and "Tarzan of the Apes," in his greatest picture.

ADMISSION 15 AND 25 CENTS.
